Baby Boomers and the Remaking of American Religion

Wade Clark Roof

Do Americans value personal spirituality over traditional religion and no longer see themselves united in a larger community of faith? Wade Clark Roof first credited this new development to the baby boomers in his bestselling A Generation of Seekers. He returns to interview many of these same people, now in mid-life, to reveal a generation with a unique set of spiritual values—a generation that has altered our understanding of the sacred itself.

The Star of Bethlehem

An Astronomer's View

Mark Kidger

Two thousand years ago, according to the Bible, a star rose low in the east and stopped high above Bethlehem. Was the Star of Bethlehem an actual astronomical event? For hundreds of years, astronomers have sought an answer to this baffling question. In The Star of Bethlehem, Mark Kidger brings all the tools of modern science, years of historical research, and an infectious spirit of inquiry to bear on the mystery.

God's Long Summer

Stories of Faith and Civil Rights

Charles Marsh

"A fresh and inspiring story of faith in action and, perhaps, a view of God's hand in human history."
—Gary Dorsey, Christian Century

"With vivid description and chilling analysis, Marsh evokes the violence and oppression in the South of the civil-rights era. . . . Many will find the results haunting."
—Randy Frame, Christianity Today
